The Bakken Museum

Tips for a Successful Field Trip

Thank you for choosing to visit The Bakken Museum. We look forward to hosting an inspiring experience for you and your students. The following is a list of recommendations that will ensure that your visit goes smoothly.

Next Steps
▪ Review your confirmation letter for your total fee and registration information.
▪ Contact The Bakken Museum with updated student numbers and request a new invoice if numbers have changed.
▪ Submit your invoice to your school or district office.

Payment Policies
▪ Payment is required on or before the date of your workshop for the number of participants registered or the number of students actually attending, whichever is greater.
▪ Refunds will not be given if fewer participants attend than were registered.
▪ Changes to your registration must be received by email a minimum of one month before your workshop date(s). Otherwise, you are responsible for the full invoice amount.
▪ Cancellations not made by email a minimum of one month before your workshop date will incur a $50 late cancellation fee.
▪ Changes and cancellations must be emailed to the Field Trips Program Manager, Bekki Hansen, at Hansen@thebakken.org.
▪ You may bring one chaperone for every 6 students attending at no charge. This includes teachers and teaching assistants. PCs and paraprofessionals assigned to individual students are not counted in your chaperone number and always receive free admission. Additional chaperones may come for $10.00 each.
▪ Payment submitted after your field trip date will incur a $50 late payment fee.
▪ If you have questions, email Bekki at Hansen@thebakken.org or call (612) 926-3878.

Arrival
▪ Buses must drop off and pick up students at the 36th Street entrance.
▪ Look for the black flag marking the Bus Drop Off point.
▪ Please do not allow your bus driver to attempt to enter our Zenith Avenue parking lot.
▪ Please remain on the bus until a Bakken Museum representative comes to greet you.

Lunch
▪ Please bring lunches that require no refrigeration or microwaving.
▪ Please remind chaperones to bring a lunch. We have NO food services on site.
▪ Lunches should be grouped together by class in containers that are clearly labeled with the teacher’s last name.
▪ School groups signed up for a Bakken/Pavek field trip will eat lunch at the Pavek Museum of Broadcasting.

Additional Information
▪ Please have your students wear name tags.
▪ Do any of your students have implanted medical devices? Please let us know and inform the student and his/her family that, even though most electromagnetic fields in the environment will rarely affect the function of an implanted device, it is recommended you keep any item containing magnets at least 6 inches away from the device.

Museum Store
▪ The Museum Store is closed to field trips.
